A huge heartfelt thank you for your food contributions for Harvest. We hope that you enjoyed our Harvest assemblies. The donated food has been collected by the local foodbank and will benefit those in our community in these challenging times.

Muddy FUN Run!Great fun had by all!!!!*

This annual event is so popular with the children, who just love the excuse to get dirty. I imagine there will be a surge in water usage this evening in the Westmoor area! If you have not already sent sponsorship cash into school or regards to netball clubs for years 5/6 and Years 3/4. Sign up using the APP.

Parental Questionnaire

This has been published on the school website. If you follow this link PARENTS | Westmoor Primary you can then click on the button for questionnaires for the analysis and feedback. Thanks again for your comments.

sent this via school gateway, then please do so after half term, so that we can share the grand total with you

Online Safety Survey

Please share your thoughts

A survey monkey regarding online safety was shared with you via school gateway. This survey is open until 1st November. A reminder will be sent from Mrs Dundas via SeeSaw, but please try and take time to share your views. We are keen to work in partnership to ensure that your children are as safe as possible when using technology.

Have a lovely half term break
